

About Us

Who are we?

Find. Love. Train. was founded by Renata Simmons to share her love of animals, her extensive experience in dog training, and her passion for animal rescue. After 30 years as a pet trainer, Renata has been involved in many aspects of dog training. She specializes in positive training methods, including clicker training for the family.

Renata is experienced in the following dog training disciplines:

- basic and advanced training
- conformation
- agility
- junior showmanship
- kids and canines
- service dog behaviors

She also has a long list of useful and just-plain-fun tricks that you can teach your dog!

Our name comes from our devotion to helping you...

- Find the right pet for your lifestyle and temperament

- Love your pet silly with toys, treats and a healthy lifestyle
- Train your pet to be a happy member of your family
